

To The Public.

This testimonial is genuine, and the original letter together with hundreds more are on file in my office for the inspection of everybody.

The Australian Electro Pill remedy excels all others.

Dr. E. J. Worst, Ashland, Ohio.

Dear Sir: I have been a confirmed Dyspeptic for 20 years. The best Doctors of this County gave me up last winter to die so did everyone else. Your Australian Pill treatment did me more good than all the medicines I had taken in 20 years put together.

I can now eat a square meal and feel good over it, instead of feeling bloated and in misery as heretofore. Your remedy has in a manner cured me.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

—Christian life consists in faith and charity.—Martin Luther.

—"Trust" is the oil that makes the machinery of a Christian life run smooth.

—Habits are to the soul what the veins and arteries are to the blood.—Horace Bushnell.

—If you would grow more in grace, try praying more for people you don't like.—Ram's Horn.

—Studying the expression of actors doesn't often teach a man how to talk in a prayer meeting.—Young Men's Era.

—The soul must sometimes sweat blood. Nothing great is achieved without the severest discipline of heart and mind; nothing is well done that is done easily.—Bayard Taylor.

—When the peace of God has possession of the mind, it guards us from temptation and harm by keeping the heart from desiring evil things, and the thoughts from wandering in forbidden paths.—United Presbyterian.

—When we have gone searching through all the books of other religions we shall find that they are as torches of various sizes and brilliance lighting up the darkness of the night, but the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are like the sun shining in the heavens and lighting up the whole world.—Charles A. Briggs.

—There are those who desire to know only that they may know, and this bears the taint of curiosity; to know that they may be known, and this is but vanity; to sell their knowledge, and this is a shameful trade; but some that they may be built up in the love and fear of God, and that is wisdom.—St. Bernard.

—Remember that if the opportunities for great deeds should never come, the opportunity for good deeds is renewed for you day by day. The thing for us to long for is the goodness, not the glory.—Frederic W. Farrar.

—Faith trials, which come through troubles, or prosperity, or temptation, or in some other way, never leave us as they find us. One man is made better and stronger and more useful by them; another is weakened, and his influence for good lessened or destroyed.—United Presbyterian.

BOOKS FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

No home is complete without Books, Tracts and Papers; but much the greater part of what is published—is either worthless or positively harmful. We cannot rely upon advertisements, as a man, without a conscience can write as good words for what is either valueless or nefarious as for that which is worthy and elevating. In this department it is our aim to offer only such books, tracts and papers, as the editor can personally recommend. We expect to add to the list from time to time as we find books of special merit. We shall also esteem it a favor of our book lovers if they will report to us the title, author and publisher of books they think are entitled to a place in this column.

—Prayer is the soul's communion with God. It is what we get by the soul that makes us rich.—Beecher.

—The only question we ask is this—whether God is guiding the race or not? If He guides it, then it is on its way to good and not to evil.—F. W. Robertson.

—There are two freedoms—the false, where one is free to do what he likes, and the true, where he is free to do what he ought.—Kingsley.

—Could the Apostle John return to earth would he not as emphatically as ever say to Christian people: "Little children, keep yourselves from idols." Wealth, success, office are all idols in this day, and not a few Christians are in danger of worshiping them.—Christian Inquirer.
